Preface.

The Visitations of Norfolk of 1563 by Wm. Hervey, Clarencieulx, of 1589 by Robert Cooke, Clarencieulx, and of 1613 by John Raven, Richmond, were combined into one collection by R. Mundy about 1620, and now form Harl. MS. 1552.

The combination was an able and a good one, and from a transcript of it, very carefully and accurately made by the late Mr. J. Eedes, the following pages have been printed to serve as a text for the use of students, pending the issue of a future volume or volumes in which I hope to reprint the whole in a narrative form, with large additions from the Collections of Le Neve, Martin, Norris, and L'Estrange, which are now in my library, and which are in the process of being carefully indexed.

From these Collections I have corrected obvious errors in the text of the copy, but have not attempted at this stage to add descents or to bring the pedigrees down to the present time.

I may mention that an elaborate edition of the Visitation of 1563 has been in the Press for the Norfolk and Norwich Archæological Society for nearly thirty years, but as it has been issued at the average rate of thirty-one pages per year only, it is clear that no one now living will live to see its completion, so the present Volume will serve as a temporary stop-gap for a good many years.
